WhAT IS

NOV 12 94

I am what I am
I is what I is
I be what I be
I do what I do
I say what I say
I feel what I feel

Always does not exist
Never is so common
Sometimes is a constant
And time waits for no man

To Love is to know pain
To die is to live again
To Will is to hunger for knowledge
To learn is to render oneself defenseless to a million emotions
Naked before the world, your stage, for scrutiny

To Err, they say, is human
To forgive divine

Reality only exist when we know the truth
Truth is the rarest of all elements in the universe Illusion and fantasy is what we leave every day
Creating those things we lack in varied ways
The Sun will set in the evening
The Moon will shine @ night
We cry when were sad
We rejoice when were glad
And as the days go bye and we cease to grow
Not one key to a secret do we hold
